4. The Railroad Days Festival is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items while participating in the Crowning/Queen process.
5. During the interview or crowning ceremony cell phones are not allowed. The cell phone maybe kept in your purse and must be off. Unless there is an emergency, anyone witnessed texting or using their phone will have ten points subtracted from their overall score. This is to ensure fairness during the selection process. If there is an emergency, please speak with one of the royalty committee members first.

Requirements and Duties of the Durand Railroad Days Queen and Attendant

1. Miss Railroad Days or her Attendant will be required to appear in various parades and community functions throughout the year, representing their title and the community of Durand. However, the majority of these appearances will be made during May through August. These appearances will be scheduled by the royalty committee. This year's Railroad Days will be May 16th, 17th, 18th, and 19th.
2. At no time will the Durand Railroad Days Queen and/or her attendant be allowed to have any guest in their company while attending scheduled events.
3. If the Durand Railroad Days Queen and/or her attendant does not attend or arrives late for a function without prior approval she will forfeit her title and scholarship.

Appropriate attire for appearances

Appropriate and proper attire is required at all times during an appearance by the Durand Railroad Days Queen and or attendant. The royalty committee will determine what type of attire is deemed appropriate for an appearance. If the royalty committee feels the outfit is not appropriate for the appearance, they may request that the outfit be changed. The royalty committee decision is final. Candidates are expected to provide their own business casual clothing and formal wear.

1. Durand Railroad Days Queen and or attendant will be required to make some appearances in formal gowns. It is the responsibility of the young ladies to acquire an appropriate gown for these occasions. Please do not feel as though a dress must be purchased solely for these events. Most of the past queens and or attendants have worn their homecoming dress, prom dress, a dress worn in a wedding, or a dress borrowed from a friend.
2. Durand Railroad Days Queen and or attendant will be expected to wear school appropriate attire with the 'official royalty' shirt, royalty shirt will be provided.
3. Durand Railroad Days Queen and or attendant may not alter their appearance once chosen. This includes visible body piercing, tattoos, or drastic hair color or styling (highlights are acceptable). Any visible body jewelry (not including earrings) must be removed and tattoos covered if chosen, even if you have them prior to crowning ceremony.

Rules and Regulations

1. When attending an event or making an appearance you are the official representative of not only Durand Railroad Days Festival, but your community, and you are expected to act in a manner compatible to your title. When not in an "official capacity", you are still expected to act in a manner compatible with your title. Remember, whether or not you have a crown or sash on, people will still recognize you and associate you with the community of Durand and the Durand Railroad Days Festival.
2. Any young lady who during her reign displays improper conduct, that could damage the reputation of the Durand Railroad Days, will forfeit her title and scholarship.
3. If chosen as Durand Railroad Days Queen or attendant, I further agree not to allow the use of any photos of myself in my crown and or sash, by any other party for publicity or advertisement, without the consent of the Durand Railroad Days Festival.
4. Miss Railroad Days will receive a $1000 scholarship; her attendant will receive a $500 scholarship. Scholarship money will be distributed at the conclusion of reign (2020 crowning ceremony). The scholarships are provided by Randy Wise of Durand.
5. The chosen Queen and Attendant official festival photos are not permitted for any other use without express written consent of Railroad Days Royalty Committee.

6. If a candidate/Queen/Attendant has charges brought against her in a court of law while participating she will be dismissed from participation. This includes, but is not limited to, felonies, misdemeanors, and truancy. Traffic citations will not be held against you.

7. The royalty committee will review all applications to determine that these guidelines have been met. The committee reserves the right to reject any application that does not meet the guidelines as stated. All decisions of the committee are final. If your application is rejected, you will be notified within two weeks of the application deadline.

Important information

Candidates will meet with the Royalty Committee Representatives during their scheduled photo session at A&R Portrait to review expectations, explain how Miss Railroad Days and her Attendant are selected, the Crowning Ceremony and to answer any questions that you may have. Parents are invited but not required to attend this meeting.

The crowning ceremony will be held Friday, March 1 at 6:30pm in the Durand Union Station. Candidates are asked to arrive by 6:00pm, dressed as you would for a job interview. This will give you time to prepare to for your formal wear change during the crowning ceremony.

Sunday, March 3 at 3:00pm the Queen and her Attendant will meet with the royalty committee to receive your required list of events, meet the Princess and Prince, and answer any further questions. The royalty member and their parent will be required to sign a contract stating that they understand the rules, obligations, and commitments that are required and that they agree to abide by them.
